

What is that shining and standing object on the stage? Although I know that there are various ways of life, I want to live by MIME.

A dancer said "Although I did MIME with 70% technique and 30% image, I do it, with 70% image and 30% technique "

I like a supernatural creature, the thing which comes out in a tale, and becoming an animal. And the thing tells.

I like drawing a picture to a space, and I like also writing a tale and a fable to a space.

Just standing. What is that light. The moment of beginning to move. It resembles the moment that a bow is released.

Although I like becoming a tree, I also like performing a tree. I also like that the tree carries out something.

Small vibration and large vibration.
Become small and Become large.
The place between them is a stage.
